Suggestions to Farmers.

A writer in the Hopkinsville Kentuckian contributes the following suggestions calculated to help the farmer overcome the difficulties that confront him in the unhealthy tobacco situation.

1st. Call neighborhood meetings.

2nd. Organize and call county meetings.

3rd. Call district meetings.

4th. Agree first not to sell at present low prices.

5th. Let your tobacco hang in barns or strip and prize in good order, roll away in large or deliver to warehouses, when you can get as much advanced on it as you would to sell it at present prices.

6th. Don't prepare any plant land.

7th. Don't plant any tobacco.

8th. Hold present crop until you get three times present values, there by giving yourself a rest from, and your land chance to recover from its impoverished condition.

Planters grow instead of tobacco, corn, cabbage, potatoes, onions, beans, tomatoes, which you can always sell. Take a rest, live easy, and let the land sweat. In your meantime petition Congress to remove tax on raw leaf, allowing planters to sell their tobacco to consumers and dealers in any quantity in natural state, either leaf or twist.

Seven Special Prizes of $500.00 Each for Early Estimates.

Every subscriber to THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS will have an opportunity to share in these magnificent prizes if he wishes to participate in the Great World's Fair Contest in which these prizes are given.

The subject matter of this great contest is the Total Paid Admissions during May, the first month of the Great St. Louis World's Fair. Without doubt, the World's Fair which will open at St. Louis on May 1, will be the largest fair ever held in the world, and every man, woman and child should be interested in this great enterprise.

Conditions of this Great Contest.

Every subscriber who remits $1.00, the regular subscription price for a year's subscription to THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS, will receive one certificate which will secure for him any prize which his estimate entitles him to claim.

When you send in your subscription, also send your estimates of the total paid admissions at the World's Fair during May, the first month of the Fair. Write your name, address and estimate in the Subscription Blank below and mail it to THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

The contest will close at midnight, April 30th, 1904, and no estimate received after that hour will be allowed. The official record of the Secretary of the World's Fair, showing the total paid attendance during May, the first month of the Fair, will be determined by a disinterested committee of prominent judges during the first week in June. As this contest will close on April 30, the day before the Fair opens, all will have an equal chance to win these prizes. Those who estimate or guess NOW will have a chance to win a Special Prize and just as good a chance to win the Capital Prize of $5,000.00 as the one who guesses on the last day of the contest.

The money to pay the prizes is deposited in the Central Savings Bank, Detroit, Michigan, and can be used for no other purpose. In case of a tie, or that two or more estimators are equally correct, prizes will be divided equally between them.

ATTRACTIONS IN NEW CROPS.

As many farmers in Breckenridge and adjoining counties see that tobacco is no longer a profitable crop for them and are turning their attention to something else, inquiries, of course, into other means of making money on the farm are being made. The news is of the opinion that the farmer would far better than at present if he would devote his time and money to raising more hops, unless, poultry, etc., for which there is no overproduction. Many farmers, however, do not agree with this idea or fear that they would be unsuccessful in putting it into practice. Then there is another class who realize the value of the idea and will attempt this year to adopt it, but on a small scale. This method, of course, is very good. Let the farmer raise more poultry, unless, or hops more next year. Let him continue to raise the same crops he has been, to be excepted, but decrease his acreage proportionately as he increases the size of his herd of live stock or his flock of chickens and turkeys. And, finally, let him raise only enough wheat, corn and other crops to supply food for his family and his stock. For the farmer who wants to quit raising tobacco, and still keep his land in some kind of a crop, other crops are holding out attractions, and some farmers are going to raise them this year in certain sections of the State. Three of these crops are given below.

In one section of the State preparations are being made to plant the entire tobacco acreage in cotton this spring, as the growers claim that although the cotton crop in Kentucky is a partial failure, they will be able to make more than they are by raising tobacco.

A new crop to which the attention of the farmers is being attracted is broom corn. Delivered at the factories it brings about a crop of one pound, a figure which will pay much better than tobacco. At this price it is said that the returns per acre and per hand will be very much more than those from tobacco, the crop is much less difficult to cultivate, there is little or no chance of failure or a short crop, and altogether it furnishes many advantages as a money crop over tobacco, one of which is that the planting season is about the same and the marketing time from one to three months earlier. The farmers of the county would do well to investigate the matter and give broom corn a trial.

And then there are the canning crops, such as tomatoes, sweet corn and peas. The J. T. Polk company's cannery in this city will use those crops and others this year and those in Hancock, Perry and Breckenridge counties. At different cities in Kentucky and Indiana where canning factories have been in operation for a number of years, farmers have raised nothing but canning crops, as they know the price is fixed and the market certain when they raise them to a canner. This fact alone attests to the profitability of raising canning crops and should give the farmers of this section some valuable food for thought.

It is believed at Washington that Senator Jo. Blackburn, who came to Kentucky several days ago, will use his influence with the Legislature for the enactment of a disfranchisement law. It is said that twelve Democratic members of the Kentucky delegation in congress are unanimously in favor of disfranchising the negroes of Kentucky on this subject, and that they are employed in other Southern States.

One feature of the meeting of the National Committee of the St. Louis Good Roads Congress last week was a call on President Roosevelt at the White House. In a brief speech the President expressed his deep interest in the subject of good roads. He spoke as follows: "Mr. Chairman: I am sure I need not say how entirely sympathetic I am with the movement that you are championing for better means of communication. The road is the symbol of civilization. Take our best province of Alaska—I don't if there is anything more needed for the development of Alaska on permanent lines than the building up of a proper system of roads, and where it is impossible to make wagon roads, trails in Alaska. Throughout our country our citizens will have to turn their energies to improve the means of intercourse—that is, the roads—between community and community, because we are a civilized people, and we cannot afford to have barbaric methods of communication."

MORE ITEMS FROM Z.

Hardsburg, Ky., Feb. 1.—On Monday we stopped with Mr. A. Richardson, Garfield's progressive merchant. He is now buying and handling tobacco in partnership with Mr. Shelby Triplett. They report that they find a ready market for burley at a high price, but the dark tobacco market is very dull and prices very low. Mr. Richardson is getting the lumber ready to build a new store-house this spring which he intends shall be one of the best business houses in the county.

Mr. J. B. Daniel sold to Chas. Dowell forty-eight acres of land, near Garfield, consideration $5 per acre. The land in this section can not long be bought at this low price. Some places in this county the same grade of land would bring $20 per acre now.

At Ammons was found our friend, J. W. French, known to most people as Bob, snugly installed in his new storehouse and dwelling. He claims that he is doing a good business in the way of general merchandise, and he expects to trade some in stock the coming season, as he has rented a farm that has an abundance of pasture land.

At Balltown was found Mr. H. A. Walker, selling goods to the people and taking care of Uncle Sam's mail. He seems to be doing a good business.

Farmers in this section have sold but very little tobacco as yet. Many say that they are going to prize and ship to the Louisville market. Mr. R. C. Mattingly has a fine crop of the weed and he says that he never has been to look at it yet. What will he do with all the tobacco in the hands of the farmer is a problem yet to be solved. Yet in the face of all this plant bed burning and preparations for another crop continue brisk as ever.

Mr. Bennie Mattingly bought of Mr. Hamilton a tract of land near Balltown containing 15 acres. Consideration $100. Also Willie Tait bought seven acres off of the same tract.

At Stephensonport we had the pleasure of stopping with R. A. Smith and his partner in the stock business, Mr. E. G. Burt. They entertained us until a late hour with an account of their recent trip to the Crow Indian Reservation and their travel over the trail followed by Gen. Custer and the old Seventh U. S. Cavalry, which was massacred there June 25, 1876. They say the battle-field is dotted over with little white stones and the marks for his brother and staff officers, where they lay when found. On the side of this monument is cut the name of each man who fell in this last and most complete Indian massacre. Among the names thus carved is one from Breckenridge county, Diggs Rollins, whose old mother and many of his relatives still reside among us. Mr. Smith saw and talked with Curley, the Crow scout, who was the only survivor of Custer's troops. Curley said that he advised Gen. Custer never to attack the camp of the Indians, and even fell upon his knees before the "Long-haired Chief," as Custer was called, and begged him not to go. "Two things," he says, "to one pale face," over there. But the general was obstinate, the charge was made, and the sad result every school boy and girl in America knows. Curley is now forty-six years old, being at the time of the battle only eighteen. He made his escape in the thick of the battle by snatching the blanket of a dead Sioux Indian who had been killed by a soldier and thus clothed in the savage's attire he was enabled to elude the onrushing camp to the forces of Gen. Reno, who was near by. Mr. Smith secured an eagle feather from the head dress of Curley and has presented it to Ironquitt Gen. O. R. M. He also presented the above named tribe with a genuine pair of Indian moccasins, all of which will be highly prized by the local Red Men.

They met also White Swan, another Crow chief, who was with Gen. Reno at the time of the battle of the Little Big Horn and who was severely wounded, which made him a cripple ever after. These Indians now lead a life of ease, and seem satisfied with their condition as pensioners off Uncle Sam.

Mrs. John Graham returned Thursday to Lewisport, after attending the bedside of Mrs. Price Graham for several days.

Sick Blood.

Feed pale girls on Scott's Emulsion.

We do not need to give all the reasons why Scott's Emulsion restores the strength and flesh and color of good health to those who suffer from sick blood.

The fact that it is the best preparation of Cod Liver Oil, rich in nutrition, full of healthy stimulation is a suggestion as to why it does what it does.

Scott's Emulsion presents Cod Liver Oil at its best, fullest in strength, least in taste.

Young women in their "teens" are permanently cured of the peculiar disease of the blood which shows itself in paleness, weakness and nervousness, by regular treatment with Scott's Emulsion.

It is a true blood food and is naturally adapted to the cure of the blood sickness from which so many young women suffer.

We will be glad to send a sample to any sufferer.

Be sure that this picture in the corner of a label is the wrapper of every bottle of Scott's Emulsion.

WHITEGETUPS CONTINUE IN VOGUE

"The fashion wears out more rapidly than the man," or the woman either, but fortunately for her whose gowns have been conservatively chosen, and all other effects avoided, no startlingly novel changes are imperative in her wardrobe.

Skirts, with the incoming of thinner stuffs, will naturally be more sketched and flanneled, and materials soft enough to adapt themselves to such handling will be in the lead. Overlapping flounce skirts are having great vogue, and multi-flouncings of silk on the drop skirts are employed to give that quintessence of elegance and "bonfancy" now so modish.

Brown will unquestionably prove one of the most prominent colors and will show nothing of its vogue, and is a leader for both elaborate and simple dresses. A good friend to women of all ages and complexions, and everywhere seen in various tints, touches of color are often used to advantage.

And while our present drooping styles continue—and they seem to have taken a new lease of life—there is no known material that can possibly supplant silk. Every day brings forth from our silk looms creations more beautiful than the last, in such attractive profusion, and so new with the mode, that no one can make a mistake in choosing silk for an intended for any occasion—however much the models may differ.

The graceful white gown I have illustrated shows one of the most picturesque and charming possibilities for winter wear. It is a simple, yet richly trimmed with velvet bands and one or two black velvet stripes, and is a style that would find distinction in the most exclusive and young matter.

This dress is made of that most elegant and delicate silk Krash, in a deep green, woven with perfectly matched silk lace. It has running lengthwise between the points of the blouse and leading the blouse on the skirt. This fresh fulvous the model takes for the skirt waist, which is establishing itself with the same fine hold as has the shirtwaist.

Homes drop a little less in front, and below are not worn quite as low, although the moderately strident from models in corsets such as the C-B-A in a spiritless show no signs of diminishing in general favor.

All Stuffed Up

That's the condition of many sufferers from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and throat.

No wonder catarrh causes headache, impairs the taste, nasal and hearing, pollutes the breath, deranges the stomach and affects the appetite.

To cure catarrh, treatment must be constitutional—alterative and tonic.

"I was afflicted with catarrh. I took medicines of different kinds, giving each a fair trial; but gradually grew worse until I could hardly hear, taste or eat. I concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after taking five bottles I was cured and have not had any return of the disease since." EUGENE BORRIS, Lebanon, Kan.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cures catarrh—it soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane and builds up the whole system.

ANNUAL STATE Y. M. C. A. MEET.

We have received the announcement of the forthcoming Twenty-Sixth Annual State Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of Kentucky, to be held at Bowling Green, Feb. 18, 19, 20, and 21. The State Executive Committee has arranged a strong and attractive program. Among those who will present vital topics are Judge Selden P. Spencer, St. Louis, Messrs. Edward W. Frost, Milwaukee, F. S. Goodman, H. O. Williams, Robert W. Wadsworth, W. D. Weatherford, New York City, S. D. Gordon, Cleveland, Ohio, Geo. S. Bond, State Secretary, Ohio, W. E. Day, Dayton, Ohio, S. W. McMill, State Secretary, Tennessee, Prof. J. C. Achison, Danville, President B. A. Jenkins, Kentucky University, Lexington, and others prominent in religious, educational and commercial circles in the State. The singing will be an inspiring feature of the Convention, and I will be led by the Corinthian Association (the Club of sixteen voices).

The Convention will carefully consider under skilled leadership the all-around work of the Association, religious, social, educational and physical. Boys' work will have a prominent place on the program. There will also be special consideration of the 250,000 young men in the State in small towns and country districts and the promotion of the Association work among them. Conferences of delegates from the city, student, railroad and county work departments will be held. A new and interesting feature of the Convention will be an exhibit which the State Committee has arranged showing the work that has been done in the Kentucky Associations during the past year. On the day following the Convention, Washington's birthday, there will be a big excursion of delegates and friends to Mammoth Cave.

Last year 54 delegates attended the State Convention at Lexington, which was the largest Association Convention, State or International, ever held in the South. Large delegations from the 45 Associations of the State are expected this year at Bowling Green. In addition, men members of evangelical churches in communities where there are no Associations, and interested in Christian work, are invited to participate in the Convention as corresponding members. A limited delegation from such communities will be admitted by the citizens of Bowling Green, covering its location, for residential giving name and address of pastor or clerk of church, is sent to the State Secretary by Feb. 10.

The various railroads in the State have granted a rate of one fare for the round trip to delegates and visitors attending the Convention. Programs of the Convention, information about credentials, etc., may be had at local Associations, or by addressing Henry E. Rosecrans, State Secretary, Fourth & Broadway, Louisville.

PITH AND POINT.

In order to be popular forget to say a good word.

Wisdom is always consoling to a rich man, and he loses his riches.

Do not emphasize your own virtues by contrasting them with the faults of others.

A safe way to judge a man is to ascertain just what friends he doesn't make.

A genius is a man who refuses to be free in the impossibilities of other people.

The claims to wisdom of owls and a multitude of men rest upon their looks, and nothing more.

To get rid of a bore ask him to repeat his longest and favorite story twice. Even he cannot stand that.

Only a smart man can conceal from a woman the fact that he isn't as smart as he would wish her to think he is.

One of the curious things about a man who wants to borrow money from you today is his eager determination to repay it tomorrow.

There is no sin in the existence of the average man when he is at particular interest in his community—viz. at his birth, marriage and funeral.—Success.

Not His Fault.

A doctor was summoned to attend the miller's little boy. He wrote out a prescription, which was promptly made up and administered in due form. The next day he called again to see his patient and found the whole family in tears.

"What's the matter?" he asked.

"Aunt" said the mother, "I shouldn't have thought that your poor child would have died of the measles."

"What?" exclaimed the doctor. "He had the measles, and you never told me?"—Paris Journal.

FARMER KILLS HIS SISTER.

Afterward Behaved the Body With an Axe—Says the Lord Commanded Him to Do It.

From the New York Sun.

Dunkirk, N. Y., Jan. 24.—Frank Nichols, who lives in Van Buren, six miles west of here, was arrested early this morning by a knocking at his door. He found Isaac Hall, a neighbor, standing in the snow, clad only in a shirt and trousers.

"I've killed my sister," said Hall. "You had better come over to the house."

Nichols followed the barefoot man through the snow to the Hall house on the Morian farm. He took one look into the woodshed and fled to the telephone station, where he summoned Chief of Police West and Coroner Blood from Dunkirk. They reached the Hall house at 8 o'clock and found Hall asleep. He did not resist arrest and was handcuffed. The officers found the body of Miss Sarah Hall in the woodshed, covered with carpets and bedpans. On top of the pile was a revolver, a pocket knife, a butcher knife and an axe, all blood stained.

Hall told the officers that he killed his sister at 4 o'clock, having been commanded by the Lord to kill her. He called her from the room, and as she entered the sitting room he fired at her, but missed. Then he cut her throat with the pocket knife, but made only a slight wound.

The pair fought all over the sitting room, and Hall dragged his sister into the dining room and cut her throat with the butcher knife. She probably died there, for the floor was covered with blood. The murderer then hauled the body to the woodshed, placed the head on the chopping block and beat it with an axe. At the end of his frenzy he beheaded the body and piled the carpets and bedclothing upon it.

The body was sent to the Dunkirk morgue, where an autopsy was performed this afternoon. Hall is in the Fredonia Jail. He is 33 years old and his sister is 27. They had lived on the Morian farm for five years. Hall was a handworking farmer, and he and his sister were well liked by their neighbors. Both came from England. Hall had never shown signs of insanity.

Letter to Bedford From Here.

According to the Courier-Journal, one of the letters sent to Bedford, Ind., after the murder of Miss Shafer, was from Cloverport and it is hoped that the guilty party, be captured, hanged and disposed of. It is not known what person's interest in the matter caused them to write the letter.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

As well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and immediate cure of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured in writing by Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Barges in Grasp of Ice.

Last week the Ohio was full of floating ice and no mail could be brought over or taken to Toltimoreport. Huge ice floes caught coal barges at Louisville and other points, swept them from their moorings and on down the river. Besides the coal barges, shanty boats and other wooden constructions, surrounded by the ice, passed this point. Some attempts were made to land some of the barges, but it was impossible to venture far out into the river even in a skiff.

Last Wednesday was the coldest day of the winter, the thermometer going down to two below zero. Thursday and Friday there was a rise in the temperature but the cold was more penetrating. Owing to the excessive cold during the middle of the week, Dayton's pond was in fine condition for skating and there were a number of skating parties.

Still Innocent.

"Senator, what was the nearest you ever came to being killed?" asked the girl who always brings everything right off.

"It was the time I voted for the post-office bill and received 7,000 shares of stock in the concern that was to make the boxes when the bill gave it a monopoly of the business."

"I should think that was a clear case against you."

"No. The measure didn't go through, and the stock never amounted to anything."—Chicago Record Herald.
